Protect yourself: Check fraud

With check fraud, scammers send potential victims counterfeit checks, instructing them to keep a portion of the amount and wire back the remainder.

Who is a target?	Red flags
Anyone can become a target.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You receive a check for no account request. You receive a check for more than you were requesting. You are asked to deposit a check but then wire back a portion of the amount.
Common scenarios	Tips to protect yourself
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You buy or sell an item online and receive a check for an amount higher than the agreed upon price. You are asked to wire back the extra amount. You receive an unsolicited check or money order with no other information. An email or text message follows, requesting you to confirm receipt of the check. You are asked to deposit the check, keep a portion for yourself and immediately wire back the balance. You complete a secret shopper assignment and are paid with a check for an amount higher than what you are due. You are advised to keep your payment and send back the remainder. You receive a check delivered by UPS, FedEx or DHL from an unfamiliar source. The paper can appear to be a legitimate company or person, and the check usually banks perfectly. But the deposited check returns as counterfeit, leaving you out any money you wired and responsible for any loss related to the check's return.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If you receive an unsolicited check or money order, be suspicious and individuals don't send money for no reason. Do not deposit a suspicious check until you've contacted the issuer to verify it. If you have already deposited a suspicious check, do not spend the proceeds or return a portion of it before the check clears the bank. If a hacker insists that you return funds by wire transfer and the transaction immediately, legitimate buyers don't pressure sellers to send money by wire transfer services. Read the pressure to act now. If the offer is good now, it should still be good after the check clears.
Reporting check fraud
If you have questions about a check you've received, please contact your bank or your financial advisor.

HEARTLAND FOOD BANK

A Plea for Families

The purpose of a food bank is to offer temporary aid to those struggling with food insecurity. Unfortunately, our current economic conditions have prolonged these struggles. Seniors and Veterans living on fixed incomes and Working families have seen a 30% drop in their usable income due to rising rents and food costs. Over 80% of Highlands County school children are provided breakfast and lunch so they can learn, grow, and be healthy. Anxiety and depression over food insecurity have risen 25% since the pandemic, higher than any other economic concern. (CDC study). We are asking our community leaders to support the Heartland Food Bank in its effort to help our friends and neighbors in their time of need. Scan the QR code above or click the link below to support the Heartland Food Bank's capital campaign and "Let no one go hungry" in Highlands County.

Who Uses Document Preparation?

FLORIDA REQUIREMENTS:
The court process does not have to be thought of as an expensive time investment. For us (Self-represented) could be the best for you. In the end, not lawyers, we are a document preparation service designed for the person who wishes to represent themselves in court proceedings. We cannot be held responsible for the quality of the documents you will need to make your journey through the court system as simple as possible. We guide you through the most common, complex and precise (Self-represented) on any and parties in similar cases. We are a member of the Florida Bar and you may find that you will receive a notice of your hearing date, which may or may not have to attend. Depending on your particular legal situation.
